The records available in our file clearly show that they were to start in a rented building and shift later into their own building. Significantly, in the original recognition order of 22.10.2006, extracts cited from their own application show that this was to be the course of events to follow. It is relevant to note that, the applicant, had, subsequently, even paid the 'shifting fee'. 3.The original recognition order had also referred to a need for shifting in case the course was started in a rented building. 4.Their claim is, therefore, rejected. Issue Show

					Cause Notice for withdrawal of recognition.
