Ordinarily, this would have meant clearance for further action on our earlier order. 1.2 In this case, however there are two other factors to reckon with : <ol style="list-style-type: none"> (i) Issue of RPRO by us. (ii) Mention of 'deemed recognition by NCTE' by the Court in their order. 2. We have, therefore, to treat this case differently. 3. Ask the college to submit all documents for processing ; especially, title deed, latest EC and the latest approved faculty list for B.Ed (2 units) and M.Ed (1 Unit). 4. Issue SCN accordingly

Hon'ble Court has directed the T.T.I. to appeal before this Committee and explain the queries raised. Accordingly. The T.T.I has filed a representation. 2. On the basis of the information/documents collected in the proceedings so far (during inspection or otherwise), various issues, some very serious have emerged. It will be necessary for all of them to be settled before this case can be considered for grant of recognition. 3. The relevant issues are as follows: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> (i) The existing building is in a dangerously dilapidated condition posing a serious threat to the safety of the persons inside. (ii) Presence of highly hazardous asbestos' roofing in the structures. It is relevant here to stress that the Regulations specifically prohibit presence of asbestos roofing not just in the area occupied by the building

					but even in adjoining areas. The reason for this is the serious health hazard (carcinogenic?) posed by asbestos. (iii) Inadmissibility of rented accommodation for conducting the programmes. (iv) Inadmissibility of lands occupied otherwise than in freehold title or in 'lease hold title' for at least 30 years from a Govt. (v) Many deficiencies relating to 'faculty issues' as earlier intimated. 4. Regrettably, these have not received the serious and urgent attention they should have. Significantly, even the simpler 'faculty issues' have not been attended to satisfactorily. It is noteworthy here that according to available records, averments to the contrary made before the Hon'ble Court are not factually correct. 5. With reference to the application made by them on 14.12.2017, send a reply as described above and ask for a detailed reply by 31.01.2018.
